buy smart
Green Procurement for Smart Purchasing

Welcome to the website of the Buy Smart+ project

The project Buy Smart+, funded by the European program "Intelligent Energy Europe", provides free consultation and information material on green procurement.

more

News

2013-03-11

Expert vote tightens energy savings from computers
Proposed new energy savings legislation for computers across the EU has been strengthened by a show of hands among national experts from each member state in a behind closed doors vote on 7 March 2013.

more 2013-02-19

CLASP and eceee point to an additional 40-70 TWh per annum by 2030 from revisions to existing ecodesign and energy labelling regulations
In a new discussion paper, analysis by CLASP has identified an additional 40-70 TWh per annum by 2030 from eleven existing ecodesign and energy labelling regulations covering seven product groups. All eleven regulations are scheduled for review between now and the end of 2014.

more 2013-01-16

Science for Environment Policy
Public authorities in EU Member States are encouraged to purchase more environmentally-friendly goods and services through Green Public Procurement (GPP). A recent survey of purchasing managers in Italy has identified some factors that influence their adoption of this strategy, and suggests that a broad knowledge of GPP is key to its implementation.

more

Events

2012-05-16

Modernising Public Procurement - The New EU Procurement Directives
September 5th 2013, The Barbican, London

more 2012-05-15

Save the Date: EUSEW 2013 - Discover concrete solutions on how to tackle fuel poverty within your region!
June 27th 2013, 9.00 AM - 1.00 PM, Bruxelles

more 2012-05-13

© buy-smart.info 2013

RPN WEBINAR: Advancing Safer Chemistry in Government Procurement
April 4, 10:00 AM - 11:30 AM , Webinar

more

© buy-smart.info 2013